WENDRAWING FOR THE MERCHUR OF CRNTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Subject: Clearance of OWN papers by IAB agencies

Reference: a Assistant Director for Reports and August 11, 1947

- 1. Since the IAB members individually will not consent to delegate authority to consur or dissent on O of estimates, it is recommended that the draft memo to members of the TAB, as suggested in reference a, be not forwarded.
- 2. It is suggested that the best solution to this problem is informally to submit it at the next IAB meeting for concideration. At this meeting pertinent extracts from OFS's "Time required for final coordination with departmental agencies under existing procedure" may be quoted to show the need for revision of the present system.
- 3. The following concrete proposels are suggested for presentation to the IAB:
 - a. There should be in OWN one single representative from each agency responsible for securing its views on each OR estimate. He should maintain the closest possible lisison between his agency and OR:, presenting to each the views of the other to the end that minor substantive commess may not be required. This system has worked well in the past in the case of ONI which is represented in 03% by Delays incurred by the State Department have been due in part by the fact that its assigned representative, Colonel Merritt Booth, serves on the JIS located in the Fentagon. If any IAB amency now does not have a representative in ONE who can be assigned this duty, the TAB member concerned should be asked to provide one; if that is isonesible, steps should be taken to transfer one acceptable to his agency from another CIG office to Oth.

b. A definite unvarying length of time between submission of an estimate to the TAR accroises and its publication should be determined. The TAR should be requested to agree that any dissent received subsequent to the deadline date will be forwarded separately upon its receipt, and a notation will be placed upon the estimate that the action of the among concerned has not yet been taken. In the past it is understood varying time limits have been prescribed by ORE, depending on the timeliness of individual estimates. This procedure is believed to have led to confusion and some misunderstanding on the part of some of the agencies.
